

The Old Rectory Estate

WEDDINGS | EVENTS | MEDIA LOCATION

THE ESTATE

The Old Rectory Estates historic Georgian house is family owned and run. The Estate dates back to 17th Century and is Grade 2 listed. Sitting in the Surrey Hills close to Gatwick and London while still being completely secluded and private. The house is set in 8 acres of stunning Italian gardens, including water features, sunken garden, many statues and topiary, an arbour and rose walk. Making your wedding photos truly unforgettable.

SUGGESTED DAY

- Bride, bridesmaids and close family use the Estate rooms for makeup, hair and of course some English sparkling
- Guests arrive walking down the drive to the estate entrance, the spectacular garden awaits them
- Your wedding ceremony is held looking over the spectacular water gardens or within the Old Rectory's Estate hall.

- English bubbly is served on the top terrace covered by a marquee (just in case) looking over the Italian styled garden and ornate pond and statuary

The Old Rectory Estate

WEDDINGS | EVENTS | MEDIA LOCATION

- Photographs of the couple, family and friends around the gardens and house.
- To the wedding marquee situated in the main garden through wrought iron gates where guests enjoy the wedding breakfast
- Guests spill out into the garden enjoying the bride and groom selected cocktail from the lower terrace bar
- The evenings entertainment starts in the marquee

Book a tour

We welcome you to visit the Old Rectory Estate for a tour of the venue and to meet the family

INCLUSIVE

We host a limited number of weddings and events each year. The venue will be exclusively for your use and very private.

Supplied is the clear top wedding marquee with stunning imported Italian chandeliers and uplighters, fairy lights. Roof space dressed in green foliage. Wooden floored with dance area, tropical trees in pots, tables and chairs, toilets, as well as the catering marquee section with refrigeration unit.

Smaller stretch marquee looks over the garden for welcome drinks. Lower terrace and marquee bar, staffed and stocked.

We have a preferred list of suppliers who we know and trust however you are free to organise your own at no extra charge

What's left to organise?

- Catering including table dressing
- Reception sparkling and table wine, we can supply if required
- Music and/or a band
- Flowers